

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION,

Plaintiff,

V.

S-RAY INCORPORATED and
STEPHEN ALEXANDER BAIRD.

Defendants.

Case No.: 3:22-cv-05150-JHC

ORDER OF DEFAULT AGAINST
DEFENDANTS S-RAY
INCORPORATED AND STEPHEN
ALEXANDER BAIRD

1 THIS MATTER came on the motion of Plaintiff Securities and Exchange Commission
2 (“Plaintiff”) for an order of default against Defendants S-Ray Incorporated and Stephen Alexander
3 Baird (“Defendants”). By its motion, Plaintiff has demonstrated that the Court has considered the 4 files and records in this case and the Declaration of Robert J. Durham, attorney for Plaintiff, and
5 finds that Defendant S-Ray Incorporated waived service in this action and Defendant Stephen
6 Alexander Baird was served in the manner required by the laws of the United States of America,
7 that the statutory time has elapsed since Defendant S-Ray Incorporated’s waiver of service and the
8 service on Defendant Stephen Alexander Baird, and that Defendants have not appeared, have not
9 served or filed an answer, and are wholly in default, and that venue was proper; now, therefore,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Defendants S-Ray Incorporated and Stephen Alexander Baird are hereby in default.

12 Dated this 11th day of July, 2022.
